

WHO WE ARE

Iflowdeck Nigeria Ltd is a wholly indigenous Nigerian company dedicated to the sourcing, processing, sales, export, and logistics of palm produce and its derivatives. Established to connect Africa's rich agricultural potential with the global demand for sustainable commodities, the company operates an integrated agro-export value chain that includes smallholder farmer networks, modern processing facilities, and international trade partnerships. With its headquarters located in Nigeria's palm-rich region, Iflowdeck strategically manages logistics operations across West Africa and key international seaports.

The company serves a broad clientele in Europe, Asia, the Middle East, and the Americas, offering a seamless, end-to-end service from farm gate to foreign warehouse delivery. Its operations are anchored in principles of quality, transparency, sustainability, and logistics excellence. By partnering with over 100 smallholder farmers, Iflowdeck supports rural economies while ensuring product traceability, regulatory compliance, and efficiency at scale.
